

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE
PORTO - PORTUGAL

17-18
OCT.
2019 ORDEM
DOS
MÉDICOS

PERSON CENTERED HEALTHCARE

APASD. ASSOCIAÇÃO
PARA A SEGURANÇA
DOS DOENTES

EUROPEAN INSTITUTE FOR
PERSON-CENTRED HEALTH
AND SOCIAL CARE
UNIVERSITY OF WEST LONDON

ABSTRACT SUBMISSION ONLINE UNTIL 31 AUG. 2019

The Congress is organized by the APASD, Portugal - Associação Para a Segurança do Doente, with the support of Conselho Regional Norte da Ordem dos Médicos and European Society for Person Centered Healthcare.

ORGANISING COMMITTEE

Andrew Miles • António Araújo • Cardoso de Oliveira • Cristina Amaral • Eurico Castro Alves • Filomena Girão • Rui Cruz

SCIENTIFIC COMMITTEE

Andrew Miles • António Araújo • Cardoso de Oliveira • Eurico Castro Alves • Isabel Azevedo • Paulo Moreira • Rui Cruz

Selected abstracts will be published in the European Journal for Person Centered Healthcare (EJPCH).

Patients, when ill, present not only a collection of organ systems, one or more of which require the intervention of scientific medicine, but rather as integral humans beings with narratives, preferences, values, psychology and many social necessities. Scientific medicine can only address a fraction of such concerns, so we need to improve and implement health systems science as an emerging component of professional education. Person centered healthcare is a new way of “thinking and doing” in clinical practice which understands patients as persons. This is a philosophy and method which enables affordable biomedical and technological advance to be delivered to patients within a humanistic framework of care that recognizes the importance of treating the patient as a whole person and responding to “her emotional, social and spiritual necessities in addition to her physical needs”.

The meeting of October 2019 brings together a range of distinguished speakers from different countries and over the intensive two days we will have presentations, posters and oral communications spanning a wide range of areas with relevance to the implementation and development of the person centered approach.

The Associação Para A Segurança dos Doentes (APASD) and their distinguished partners, European Society for Person Centered Healthcare and Portuguese Medical Association, welcome you to the conference.

More information:

<https://personcenteredhealthcare-porto-2019.eventqualia.net>

SCHEDULE

OCTOBER 17TH, 2019

09:00 - 09:15	Welcome to the Conference Andrew Miles (ESPCH), António Sarmiento (FMUP, CHSJ), Manuel Cardoso de Oliveira (APASD), Salvato Trigo (UFP)
09:15 - 09:30	A greeting from the European Society for Person Centered Healthcare Jonathan Elliott Asbridge (European Society for Person Centered Healthcare, London UK)
09:30 - 10:45	Focus on Person Centered Healthcare and Bioethics Person centered healthcare is a way of thinking and doing things which have into account person needs, will, values, narratives, social and lifestyle circumstances. This implies new types of procedures, relationships and lawful questions. These issues will be presented and discussed against a bioethics perspective. Chair: Walter Osswald (Instituto de Bioética da Universidade Católica)
09:30 - 09:45	Bioethics and Person Centered Healthcare Ana Sofia Carvalho (Director of the Bioethics Institute of UCP)
09:45 - 10:00	Narrative enriched care for Person Centered Healthcare Susana Teixeira (UFP/ IBioethics Institute of UCP)
10:00 - 10:15	Medical law for Person Centered Healthcare Filomena Girão (FAF Law Firm)
10:15 - 10:45	Discussion: Filipe Almeida (FMUP, HSJ) and Maria do Céu Patrão Neves (University of Azores)
10:45 - 11:00	Coffee-break

11:00 - 12:15	Focus on evidence and competence in Healthcare Patient and public involvement in healthcare The question of evidence in healthcare continues to evoke controversies, and the successive action paradigms demand new competencies. Mind-body medicine must constitute a permanent background and new thinking systems must be developed and tested in all health areas. Chair: Andrew Miles (European Institute for Person Centered Health and Social Care, University of West London, UK, ESPCH, and European Journal for Person Centered Health Care)
11:00 - 11:15	Patient and public involvement in healthcare: a fundamental prerequisite for person-centered care Mary Chambers (Faculty of Health, Social Care and Education, Kingston University and St George's, University of London)
11:15 - 11:30	What is to be competent in Public Health? Henrique Barros (FMUP, ISPUP)
11:30 - 11:45	Mind-Body Medicine Jaime Milheiro (Essayist and Psychoanalyst)
11:45 - 12:15	Discussion: Isabel Ramos (FMUP, CHSJ) and Laranja Pontes (IPO Porto)
12:15 - 12:45	Symposium
12:45 - 14:00	Lunch
14:00 - 15:15	Focus on Medical Education In face of the tremendous scientific and technological advances in medicine, along with an accompanying collapse of humanistic values, a significant modification of the medical school curricula is needed. It should include concerns with health literacy of the population, patient empowerment, as well as social and humanistic sensibility of healthcare professionals. Chair: António Sarmento (FMUP, CHSJ)
14:00-14:15	Why should we 'do' person-centered care? What is the evidence for person-centred care? Andrew Miles (European Institute for Person Centered Health and Social Care, University of West London, UK, ESPCH, and European Journal for Person Centered Health Care)
14:15-14:30	How do we educate physicians in these new times? Manuel Cardoso de Oliveira (APASD, ESPCH, UFP, Retired Professor of the Faculty of Medicine of Porto/São João Hospital)
14:30-14:45	Health literacy and Patient Centered Healthcare Rui Estrada (UFP)
14:45-15:15	Discussion: José Fragata (Nova University of Lisbon, HSM) and Luís Campos (CHLO, SPMI)
15:15 - 15:30	Coffee-break
15:30 - 16:45	Focus on the double face of new technologies and implementation of Person Centered Healthcare Artificial intelligence, capable of solving problems that normally require human intelligence, has seen a great rise of interest due to significant advances in effectiveness. But there is a double face in the new technology, what forces us to critically balance its use. Chair: Jonathan Elliott Asbridge (ESCPH)
15:30 - 15:45	Person-centered care: a new way of 'thinking' and 'doing' in clinical practice Andrew Miles (European Institute for Person Centered Health and Social Care, University of West London, UK, ESPCH, and European Journal for Person Centered Health Care)
15:45 - 16:00	Medicine and Science – what went wrong? Michael Loughlin (European Institute for Person Centred Health and Social Care, University of West London, UK)
16:00 - 16:15	Clinical decisions in the era of artificial intelligence Tiago Taveira (FMUP)

-
- 16:15 - 16:45 Discussion: Miguel Trigo (Fernando Pessoa Foundation) and Maria Manuela Araújo Jorge (Retired Professor of the Faculty of Arts and Humanities of University of Porto)
-
- 16:45 - 16:55 Closing Remarks
Manuel Cardoso de Oliveira (APASD, ESPCH, UFP, Retired Professor of the Faculty of Medicine of Porto/São João Hospital)
-

OCTOBER 18TH, 2019

- 09:00 - 10:15 Focus on Person Centered Healthcare and Management of Patients with Cancer and Other Chronic Diseases. Focus in shared decision making
Cancer, as a chronic disease, demands new approaches. Ethic and philosophical implications of new developments will be discussed.
Chair: Manuel Sobrinho Simões (FMUP, IPATIMUP)
-
- 09:00 - 09:15 Person Centered Healthcare in the management of patients with cancer
Manuel Sobrinho Simões (FMUP, IPATIMUP)
-
- 09:15 - 09:30 Operational implementation of person-centered healthcare: concepts and methodology in clinical practice
Jonathan Elliott Asbridge (ESPCH)
-
- 09:30 - 09:45 Focus on shared clinical decision making. The need of conceptual clarification
Michael Loughlin (European Institute for Person Centred Health and Social Care, University of West London, UK)
-
- 09:45 - 10:15 Discussion: António Tavares (SCMP) and Mary Chambers (FHSCE, Kingston University and St George's, University of London)
-
- 10:15 - 10:30 Coffee-break
-
- 10:30 - 11:45 Focus on Person-centeredness in implementing quality improvement projects
Implementation of quality improvement projects is at the center of all healthcare institutions concerns. An all level strategy for quality improvement, from home to hospital care, will be discussed by diverse specialists.
Chair: José Artur Paiva (CHUSJ; FMUP, Grupo de Infecção e Sepsis)
-
- 10:30 - 10:45 Integrated clinical pathways between home, primary and hospital care for cancer patients
Ana Azevedo (Centre for Hospitalar Epidemiology/CHUSJ, FMUP, ISPUP)
-
- 10:45 - 11:00 Improving access to hospital specialty care
Sofia Correia (ISPUP, FMUP)
-
- 11:00 - 11:15 KPC (Klebsiella pneumoniae carbapenemase) control through antimicrobial stewardship (AMS), surveillance and cohorting
Nuno Pereira (Infection Prevention and Control and Antimicrobial Resistance, Centre for Hospitalar Epidemiology/CHUSJ, FMUP)
-
- 11:15 - 11:45 Discussion: Adelaide Belo (ACSS), Dulce Pinto (ACES Oriental Porto) and Inês Alves.
-
- 11:45 - 11:55 Closing Remarks
Manuel Cardoso de Oliveira (APASD, ESPCH, UFP, Retired Professor of the Faculty of Medicine of Porto/São João Hospital)
-
- 12:30 - 13:00 Symposium
-
- 13:00 - 14:00 Lunch
-
- 14:00 - 17:00 Sequential Oral and Poster Presentations
Chairs: Carla Fernandes, Cristina Amaral, Filomena Girão, João Paulo Pina, Lurdes Gandra, Paulo Moreira, Pedro Reis, Rui Cruz, Tiago Taveira
-